

Call for submission of artwork for Fall 2020

SEASONS on St. Croix Gallery will be reviewing submissions of hand crafted and original fine art after September 15, 2020. We will plan to notify artists by the end of October.

Currently serving 175 artists, the gallery promotes original fine art and contemporary craft, predominately created by local and regional artists. Artwork selections are made based on a high standard of aesthetics, creativity, execution and general appeal.

Please submit images of your work and the attached application to SEASONS on St. Croix Gallery on or before September 15, 2020. After the images are reviewed, selected artists will be requested to bring actual work to the gallery at a later date for further review.

- Artist must complete application form.
- Artist may submit up to five photographs that are representative of their artwork being offered for sale. No online or CD applications.
- Each sample must be labeled with the artist's name, title of piece, dimensions, materials used and full retail price.
- Retail price is set by the applicant.
- If an artist is accepted, SEASONS on St. Croix Gallery retains 50% commission on all sales made from the gallery.
- When bringing artwork to the gallery, all costs associated with shipping artwork to and from SEASONS is the responsibility of the artist.

For more information contact Angel MacMenamin, gallery owner, at 715-381-2906 or email her at angel@seasonsonstcroix.com.

*SEASONS on St. Croix Gallery
401 Second Street, Hudson, Wisconsin 54016*